

September 21 - International Day of Peace

Every year on September 21, the International Day of Peace is celebrated all over the world. The UN General Assembly declared this day a day dedicated to strengthening the ideals of peace through 24 hours of non-violence and ceasefire. Never before has our planet needed peace so much.

The events of recent years - military conflicts, terrorism, deep contradictions dividing peoples and individuals around the world, the climate crisis, viruses have determined the unprecedented relevance of the International Day of Peace today.

Peace Day is a holiday of mutual understanding between peoples, respect for the ethnic, religious, cultural traditions and customs of various groups of people and individuals, it is a holiday that allows humanity to unite its efforts and resist aggression and violence.

In 2024, the International Day of Peace is dedicated to the theme "Promoting a Culture of Peace".

On this day, we call on the entire public to mobilize efforts to strengthen peace, friendship, mutual understanding and harmony between people to implement the ideas of humanism, mercy and compassion, because the main value and goal in our lives is peace.

We wish everyone love and warmth in relationships, respect and trust, peace and harmony.

Peaceful skies above your head!
