

About state symbols - in a special issue of the project "Belarus is Creative"

We are recognized all over the world by them - the Belarusian flag, coat of arms and anthem.

The Day of the National Flag, Emblem and Anthem in our country falls on every second Sunday in May, this year it is May 14.

For three decades of independence, the Belarusian flag has flown into space, climbed the highest mountain peaks, and visited Antarctica.

See everything about state symbols in the special issue of the project "Belarus is Creative" on the TV channel "Belarus 1" on May 14 at 11.50.
